CITY CHAT.

Here and There About Our Rapidly

Growing Rockland.

OR years Rockland

has not enjoyed an easy social season as the present. A larger number of visitors

than usual grace our city with their presence, and an unusually nice kind of people, too. Rockland is as Democratic in a social way as it is Republican in a political way, and nice people, whether they are possessed of large amounts of this world's goods or not, have the unquestioned entire to our best society circles, which means unlimited good times. Nice people are more than welcome here, and our people spare no pains to make their sojourn here delightful and pleasant.

The various local cottage cities are flourishing this season. Cooper's Beach, Ballan Park,

Crescent Beach, Pleasant Beach and Bay View are busy headquarters of Summer life. We are glad to see these Summer settlements thrive and prosper. They all help to make the city able in this section during the heated term.

Considerable regret is expressed by our people that it was found necessary to take off the early train out of Rockland. The fact that lack of patronage made such a step necessary is nothing to the discredit of Rockland's enterprise, because railroads all over the country are complaining of the falling off in their business, and ascribe it to the general depression felt all over our country. Rockland appreciates the enterprise of the Maine Central in furnishing first-class traveling facilities, and will take every opportunity to show it.

The emergency hospital which has been established in Syndicate Block through the efforts of Drs. Hancock and Ayers is an institution which should command the interest and support of our people. In case of accidents heretofore there has been no place where the one injured could be taken except to some private house where all the things necessary for proper treatment of the case are lacking. In the hospital now established quarters have been fitted up for one person, and any unfortunate who meets with accident can be taken there and find everything ready. The hospital is not established as a money-making institution, but is intended for the care of sick and wounded humanity at a cost of little or nothing. Lead a hand!

Said a former Rockland resident, one day last week: "I notice a great change for the better in Rockland. Outside of the improvement in streets and building, I am particularly pleased with the unanimity with which the people speak a good word for the city. Years ago, and not very many years ago, either,

Rockland people had the bad habit of saying unpleasant things about the city and its people, exciting attention to the mud, seeming at the city's business, etc. Now there seems to have been a great change, and with the improvements in buildings and streets has come a change in the way Rockland people refer to Rockland. The change seems to be very general, and with the exception of the Rockland

Uicer, all seem anxious to speak a good word for the city and its people. As to the Uicer it's a case of the bird and the nest."

It is quite a compliment to Rockland to be permitted to entertain the Maine Dental Association next Summer, and we must see to it that we impress upon our visitors the fact that we not only have the dentists down this way but a fine city and an hospitable people as well.

Blon Wilson of Portland, U. S. Bank Examiner, was in the city Tuesday and Wednesday making one of his regular examinations of Rockland's National Banks. Our banks are in fine condition, conducted in a conservative manner, and like other Rockland institutions rank very high among Maine's National Banks.

Other places in New England report frequent failures, but in Rockland a business failure is as rare as an undertone chicken. We seldom hear of an assignment in our midst. Our business men do business in a business-like way, are well patronized by Rockland people

OUTLOOK.

The Burlington, Vt., Independent predicts that Col. Daniel Lamont will be the next governor of New York.

Financiers all over the country now claim that the worst of the business panic is over and that business will resume its normal condition.

Maine's hay crop has now been harvested, and according to all reports has been garnered in excellent condition and in fair quality.

This means a dollar or two in the farmers.

These mill shut-downs are not all indications of business depression. Every Summer certain industrial plants suspend operations for a time because of over production in the Winter.

Germany has passed a law which should assist in preventing accidental poisoning, and one which might be imitated hereabouts. All drugs intended for internal use must beaccessorily put up in round bottles, and those which are only used externally must be placed in hexagonal bottles.

The New York Times strongly advises people to hold on to their stocks and bonds. "For any investor at the present time to throw his stock or his bonds on the market is simply witlessly and needlessly to deprive himself and those dependent on him of means that could with entire safety be secured." In fact, shrewd men who do not speculate take such occasions as the present to invest in reliable securities.

According to the reports from the city authorities of Chattanooga, Tenn., the Amick treatment for consumption is making astonishing cures. The Times says the eleven patients to whom were administered Dr. Amick's medicines are so far improved that their appetites have returned. They sleep well at night;

LIVELY TIMES AHEAD

WHEN CONGRESS MEETS THERE WILL BE STRUGGLES FOR SEATS.

The Contests Will Precede All Other Questions—Cases Which Will Serve For Tests. A Case of "Constitutional Power"—"Keep Still" and "Saw Wood."

[Special Correspondence.]
WASHINGTON, July 27.—The senate on the resuming of congress, a special session will almost immediately re-convene on the consideration of a question of the highest privilege—namely, the right of three of its members to their seats. The determination of this highest of all questions in a parliamentary body will precede silver, tariff and everything else. The house will have nine contests on its hands, but it is less jealous of its absolute integrity as a law making body than the senate, which is a continuous organism and will be content with reference of the contests to the committee on elections, which at its leisure will hear the contests and make report on all the cases some time before final adjournment.

Having referred the contests, the house will plunge into debate over the silver question as soon as a bill can be reported from committee. What advantage there is in this programme rests with antisilver men. Admittedly stronger in the popular branch of congress than in the upper body, the friends of repeal will be able to make their fight in the senate with the prestige of a large majority of the members of the house, comparatively fresh from the people, behind them, as voting for repeal. Every little count, as the miser millionaire said when he dropped a punched coin on the contribution plate, and the effect of a large antisilver vote in the house will influence the vote in the senate.

It will be quite a relief in the dog days of mid-August to go from the heated debates of the house over finances to the cool shades of the senate, where placid constitutional arguments will flow. The point involved in the senate contests is the right of the governor of a state to appoint a senator to fill a vacancy where the legislature has adjourned and failed to elect. The prolonged deadlock in the states of Montana, Wyoming and Washington caused the question to be raised. Lee Mantle, a Republican editor, mine owner and free coinage advocate, holds the certificate from the governor of Montana as ex-Senator Sutherland's successor. The legislature is Democratic and Populist, but an old feud between Montana millionaires gave the Republican governor an opportunity to send a man of his own political faith.

Senator Allen in Washington ran up against a stiff combination in the legislature, and he being stubborn and the other fellows obstinate the legislature failed to elect. The governor gave the youthful looking senator a certificate as the state's senator until the legislature can reconvene and make up its mind.

Mr. Allen is for repeal of the Sherman law. If the ladies could decide this question, he would remain by a very large majority. He is good looking, with a young, almost boyish face, in which the fresh blood raises pretty blushes and dimples. He ranks well as a lawyer and has enough coolness in the supreme court to swell his senatorial income to respectable proportions.

A. C. Beckwith, Democrat, comes from Wyoming as a successor to Francis E. Warren, a Republican who drew the short term when Wyoming was admitted to statehood and managed in less than two years to make an unusually strong impression on senators as a man of vigor and ideas. Mr. Beckwith is inclined toward free coinage. He is a Wyoming pioneer, the richest man in the state and has large business interests which may lead him to favor some measure promising present relief to the financial straits.

The senate talked for some days at its special session in March on the constitutional power of appointment by the governor. The majority report of its committee on privileges and elections was favorable to the seating of the senators. There was a strong minority, however, led by Chairman Vance. Constitutional and not party lines marked the division of sentiment in the senate.

Mantle's case is the one on which the test will be made. The controlling spirit of the majority report is that the constitution anticipates that the senate shall be kept full—that is, constantly have two senators from each state—and that a vacancy exists—in which case the constitution gives the governor power to appoint—as through death. The minority hold that it is for the state to see that it sends senators and that a "vacancy" means an accidental happening. Dictionaries, history and law will be ransacked to define "vacancy" and "happening."

No grave question of constitutional law will control the nine contests in the house. The constitution may figure incidentally in some of the house contests, but primarily it will be who got the most votes in the election and who has the most of them in the house. Third party men have instituted five of the nine contests. They may claw some, but they are not so visionary as to imagine they will win any of their contests.

The Populist contested seats are held by Democrats, except that Farmer Funtion, Republican, of Kansas, will have to defend his title against H. L. Moore. There will be a lively time if Richard himself again, and methinks he will be when Tom Watson of Georgia gets a chance to attack the claims of J. C. C. Black. On the face of the record Captain Black has only a little matter of 5,000 votes more than the brilliant, erratic Populist. Watson charges all manner of fraud and importation of voters from across the river in South Carolina as a part of a conspiracy to snuff him under. His experience has been just such as to stir this enthusiasm, with a worn, wasted frame, smitten, restless eyes and great activity and energy, if not solidity, of brain. It will require lots of self control for the southerners to keep cool when Watson gets started, though the result of the contest is of course not debatable since Watson closed his own coffin lid in the house when he last winter gave currency to the phrase, "Where am I at?"

P. H. Thresher, another Populist, will insist that the majority of 188 votes given H. A. Enloe of Tennessee, the pension office investigator, is more apparent than real.

J. F. Epps, a southern Virginia Democrat, has nearly 3,000 more returned votes than Populist J. T. Goode, who will contest before a Democratic house. The other southern contest comes from North Carolina and is instituted by a Democrat, A. H. A. Williams, who will have to account for a shortage of 614 votes less than Thomas Settle, a brilliant Tar Heel Republican.

The subject contest will be that of John J. O'Neill, the St. Louis Labor Democrat, who is seeking to oust Charles F. Joy, a Republican, 67 votes ahead. In the California contest of W. B. English, Democrat, against S. G. Hillborn, Republican, there is a difference of only 33 votes, and in Illinois Robert A. Childs, Republican, was sent to congress with 29,872 votes against 29,835 for Lewis Stewart, Democrat, who is not a spunker, but will be represented on the floor by his "next friend," as the court records go, William M. Springer.

The list closes with an illustration of the wisdom of keeping quiet and saving wood. Representative Ballou, Republican, in Michigan was ahead of George F. Richardson, his Democratic competitor, but fearful of frauds against him demanded a recount, with the result that he lost more votes than Richardson, who holds the certificate of election by 10 votes. Richardson is one of the sturdy men in congress, a real business man, a good soldier, a brave man, as he

One outing gown is made of flowered cheviot luster cloth in Serves style, with Tyrolean lace and peot ribbon ruffles. Several exquisite lounging robes and tea jackets are of India silk, neatly striped and made up in loose flowing moles.

The reception dresses are typical ones. A garnet and gray robe is after a picture of Anne of Austria, having a short pointed waist, hipdraperies and slanting bouffant. A chic French dress is of dotted gray and pink muslin, has Dolly Varlen draperies and a shirred waist. A butterfly evening frock is of black, thin, shimmering gauze, garnished with sparkling silver pascimenterie.

One robe du chambre is of pink surah embroidered in panels with forget-me-nots and leaves. There are long ruffles over the shoulders, and the neck is V shape.

A Japanese robe is after the pretty comma design, which is just a straight loose fall of Japanese chrysanthemum silk, brought in at the waist by an enormous sash. Japanese corals are worn with this.

Chemiselettes of Indian mull and the finest of linen are embroidered, plaited tucked and massed in Valenciennes lace and ribbons, while petticoats and hosierie galore go to make up the regal trousseron.

New Colorings in Denim.

A new material that is bound to be popular for fancy work is denim in shades of red. It will make the most effective hammock and piazza pillows one can imagine and will require absolutely no decoration, although some very striking work may be produced by embroidering various articles made of this goods with heavy crowds or wash linen in such contrasting shades as dark blue, old gold or black. It is especially adapted to such purposes as laundry and shoe bags, being strong and washable. A pattern that is easily drawn and executed is that of partial circles overlapping each other around the bottom of a bag or across the corner of a pillow. Draw the outlines with a saucer and work in feather stitch. It will make most artistic portieres for cottages, placed in the dining room or hall, where richness of coloring is desirable. There is also a reversible denim, shading from red to blue, with the blue part dominating on one side and the red on the other.

GUILFORD, N. J., July 27.—The other night two men were talking in the seat just in front of me on the train. "I tell you, I'll be glad when I get home tonight," said the first, with great feeling.

"Are you tired out?" asked the second. "Not much. I never felt better in my life."

"You haven't a lot of work to do that you ought to have done at the office."

"No, I have not."

"Suppose you are anxious to see your family?"

"Yes, that's one thing, and another is that we're going to have roast turkey stuffed with sausage meat. Isn't that enough to make a man love his home and want to get to it?"

"Well, I guess so," replied the second man, "but I'm glad to get home when I only have corned beef and cabbage and pumpkin pie two inches thick. It ain't the food, old man. It's the home and its influence that are to the meal with a full heart is to a poor picture."

"Now, I'd rather have pig's knuckle and apple dumplings as heavy as lead at home than terrapin and tutti fruttice tream in a restaurant, wouldn't you?"

"Well, I guess yes."

"Of course you would. Now what do you think I'm going to have tonight?"

"Give it up."

"Fried clams and plum pudding."

"Only a happy home could make that combination a success," said the first man.

"That's just it. My home is so happy that I can make a sandwich of sponge cake and liver, and I make in my month, it's so good. Good, how I make that pork tenderloin and apple dumpling jump. Good night!"

And while out got off to fly to his pork tenderloin and apple dumpling the other leaned back in his seat and dreamed of the roast turkey stuffed with sausage meat.

THINGS FOR COMFORT

Katty Styles in Neatly Made Hats For Young Ladies.

Hats in general are a complicated study, but the negligence that is not so varied in shape or so bewildering as to trimming as its more elaborate sisters yet it has a jaunty air, a picturesque style, peculiar to itself and quite unlike the other members of the hat family. The inevitable sailor in every color is sure to appear once a year. It may be a braided hair, a braid lower in the crown, a braid narrower in the brim, but it is the same sailor. The little change is useful in a commercial sense, for it necessitates a new one each time. This season's sailor has an extended width of brim, which is quite equal to those worn by the men. They are universally popular, however, and are used for all outing purposes as well as city wear.

A cloth cap with a visor, which looks as if it were originally intended for a man, is quite the proper thing for nautical use and is especially suitable, as salt water will have no effect on it.

Very young girls wear funny polo caps and little visor caps, which resemble a musketeer, as they are made of a series of pointed pieces.

The jaunty little negligee hat is made of silk or cloth, with a low, broad crown and a narrow stitched brim with two quills on one side pointing toward the front.

Dalton's Sarsaparilla AND NERVE TONIC
The "Best on Earth" on its Merits—Compare it with all others and be satisfied. WHITE SWELLING AND SCROFULA Permanently Cured. No Further Use for Crutches.

THIS IS A MOST WONDERFUL CURE!

No other Remedy can produce its equal.
Gentlemen: Belfast, Me., Dec. 2, 1892.
In February, 1881, I had been on crutches for two years from a white swelling of my right knee and also had glandular swellings about my neck and chest. I had gradually been running down for a much longer time and had a severe cough, and was greatly emaciated and weak. All my friends considered me far advanced with consumption. I was thought to be beyond help. I was thoroughly discouraged, and judged that medicine was of no use in my case, as I had been under the care of a skillful physician for two years constantly. On February 5, 1881, I commenced taking DALTON'S SARSAPARILLA, and took it three months. At the end of that time my knee had improved so I could go about with a cane, and my strength had improved to a remarkable degree. I had a good appetite and was feeling cheerful at the thought that I should be well once more. In six months I discarded cane as well as crutches. At the end of seven months I ceased taking medicine and found myself well. I have remained well to the present time and am not the least bit lame. I owe my life to DALTON'S SARSAPARILLA and have proved my cure to be permanent. I cannot recommend it too highly to others similarly affected. Should anyone doubt the truth of the above statement they can refer to me by letter.

CAMDEN.

The Baptist Sunday School goes to Oglet's Point, Tuesday, on a picnic.

The cadets, Col. Baker in charge, went on a hay ride, Wednesday.

The brown stone front of Masonic Block is beginning to make a showing. 'Twill be fine.

Frank Frye, a Camden boy who has a fine position in Boston, is here on his annual vacation.

Capt. D. W. Arty has quite recovered from the blow received from a falling block. It was quite a clip.

Had a thunder shower, Wednesday. Gardens enjoyed it. Lightning struck the earth near the Baptist church.

Saturday morning Edw. Rokes jammed his leg quite badly between two barrels while at work on the Curtis block.

W. F. Kellar & Co., shirt manufacturers, have shut down until Sept. 1. This is not due to the tariff. Usual summer rest.

The bids for carrying the mails between Rockland and Camden are all in and have been forwarded to Washington.

It is thought that the report of the sinking of the foundation of the corporation building was started by a man who was refused a job there.

Rev. F. M. Ellis, D. D., of Baltimore, Md., who is spending the summer in Camden, preached at the First Baptist Church, Bangor, Sunday.

Work commenced on the superstructure of the French block yesterday. The foundation was completed last week. W. E. Schwartz will have charge of the building.

Extra Bramhall launched his 42-foot steam launch Minicaba, Tuesday evening. She has been sold to Down East parties and is threatened with speed.

Rev. F. W. Ryder of Lawrence, Mass., preached Sunday evening at the Chestnut Street Baptist Church to a large audience. The sermon was greatly enjoyed.

The American Express office here has been fixed up in the most approved style, with brass railing and other betterments. Everett Duffy, the agent, is accommodating and efficient.

One of our well known young men who held down a rocking chair with the assistance of his best girl, the other evening, will be more careful about pulling down the blinds next trip.

T. A. Hunt has a lovely flower garden in the rear of the postoffice building. He tended it for the first time, Wednesday. It is irrigated by a brook from Rose Bros' soda fountain. Sunflowers, dahlias, asters and J. Goulds are the principal varieties.

Dr. Ellis and family have taken rooms at Lake City Inn for two or three weeks in August. The doctor is very fond of fishing and goes to the lake where he may have the opportunity to handle the rod to his heart's content.

Bliss Lobe, the urban manager of Fulton market, who recently umpired a game of baseball between the Meganticook and Camden M.V. clubs, informs us confidentially that he expects no more ball games. He says that when a man recklessly plunges into danger and then Providence spares him the man should take the hint and keep out of peril.

An insurance agent who has been doing the town dirt quick little job, Thursday, is out onto a car at Rockport for Camden, and besides a young man who had also just taken the car. The subject of insurance was broached and when the car reached Camden the young man had a receipt for money paid the agent for accident insurance of $25 a week.

The Warren Baseball Club wants another try at the Camdens, and will probably be accommodated. We have a first-class team, and one made up of gentlemen as well as players, and it takes a warm club to down 'em. They are handicapped, however, because they have no decent place for practice or play. If some of our public-spirited men could see their way clear to give the boys a lift, they'd win a lovely halo.

Lake City Inn was the scene of a very jolly party, Friday evening. At eight o'clock 25 couples of Camden and Lake City people sat down to one of Landford Fountain's best suppers. After an hour at the supper table, the dining room was cleared and at 9:30 Dr. Young with two able assistants entered the party back to the dining hall by such dance music that few can resist. "The best time yet" was the universal comment as the party separated by backboard and private team for their homes, at a late hour.

The Bangor stone mason who told the Bangor News that the walls of the foundation for the Camden Town Hall were settling evidently didn't know what he was talking about. The architect of this building is Mr. E. I. Thomas of Auburn and the builders are Libby & Joselyn of Lewiston and they say that the report is false and has so been proven. The fact is they dug down into ground and sunk some piers and soon after there came a rain which filled up the holes and covered the piers. The Bangor stone mason probably went along and noticed that the piers were submerged at once concluded that they were gradually going down into the bowels of the earth. The lot on which the hall is building is rather soft, but the builders and everybody know it and the piers have absolutely been made to meet this difficulty and thus far they have had no reason to believe that there will be any trouble whatever from this source. The walls of the foundation have not settled a particle, the contractors say.

Not long ago Mrs. Matthews of Camden invited the W. C. T. U. of this place with their friends to a picnic at her house, Wednesday of last week was the time set and a large number availed themselves of the opportunity for half a day's outing, and were taken over by C. E. Barnard in his four-horse barge. The weather looked very threatening when they started but at last it cleared away and they had a fine day and an excellent time. They came home by moonlight arriving here about 9:30, pronouncing Mrs. Matthews and her sons right royal entertainers.

THE FIREMEN.

Trials Which Show the Efficiency of Our Department.

Americus Hook & Ladder Co., James Dunobue foreman, and N. A. Burpee Hose Co., David Friend foreman, were out for practice Tuesday evening at the North-end. The Americus boys took their 40-foot extension ladder from the ground, ran with it 100 feet to the Warren Street school-house, set up the ladder, ran up the extension and set the supports, all in fifteen seconds, and claim they can do it in less time.

The Burgess then ran 100 yards, laid 150 feet of hose and took it to the top of the schoolhouse in 75 seconds. Some water was made the time less than that. Foreman Friend has his company well in hand, and says he will show a better record than that after a few more trials.

The Burgess had a trial a few days ago at the Purchase Street school-house, and did good work. The hooks practice once a week. We should like to see a contest of speed and efficiency between our companies. The C. G. O. will head a subscription to buy a suitable prize.

The H. & L. company is a good one and well offered. James Dunobue's foreman, Frank C.
Finn and foreman, L. B. Simmons. St. foreman.
Foreman Dunobue is the oldest member, as far as continuous service is concerned, in the department at the present time. He joined the Americus Company seventeen years ago when it was organized by A. J. Barber, G. L. Black and E. J. Clifton. The last named was the company's first foreman.

THE FISHERIES.

A few mackerel are being received by the
C. B. Weeks Co., caught off Montserrat, Friendship and Naticus.

A large party of our people had a large time at Crescent Beach last evening. After a nice supper, dancing was enjoyed with music by McNevery.

Prof. R. C. Rankin is planning a nice German for Thursday, Aug. 10, in the Hall. His Orchestra of Dorchester, will furnish the music. Refreshments will be served in the banquet hall.

Another of those good times is arranged.
A social dance at Watts Hall, Thomaston, tonight, with the Barker's Orchestra. The cars run to the dance, and buckboard concessions will be at Mill River.

A Bar Harbor dispatch says Secretary Herbert arrived there Friday evening on the Dolphin. He will remain a few days and then go to Bath, and be in Washington by Friday.
He will not go to Machias as planned, as the Machias will not be there.

The excursion on the Juliette to Northport advertised for Saturday last, was postponed to Thursday next. The boat leaves Tilsam wharf at 7 a. m., touching at Camden.
There will be a dance in the pavilion on the arrival at Northport.

The Epworth League of Rockland, Thomaston and Camden will sail in a grand excursion to Vinalhaven next Thursday, if the day is pleasant. Steamer Gov. Rodwell will leave Rockland in the morning at 9:30 and proceed to Camden, thence to Vinalhaven, leaving to return at 6 p. m. Great pains have been taken to arrange for a good time and a large attendance is expected.

Camden summer travel is nearly up to the average. The Bay View and Mountain View hotels are well filled, and the boarding houses are doing up. The Eastern Yacht Club schooners Gorilla, O. B. Roberts, and Gundred, B.
Vaughan and family, bartered there Thursday. The Vif, Charles P. Merrill, and steam yacht Maitland, Commodore C. W.
Bray of the Portland Yacht Club were also in the harbor.

An invitation dancing party, under the management of Prof. Rankin and A. H.
Jones, was given at Oakland Wednesday evening, with 30 couples from this city and Rockport. Capt. Buckford served a nice lunch of ice-cream, coffee and cake at intermission, and the evening passed very enjoyably. The party will be repeated this week, Wednesday, and the same company with friends will go.

Miss Grace W. Ayres most delightfully entertained a large number of friends at an "afternoon tea" given in honor of Miss Frances Wilson of Bangor, assisted by Misses Mabel Fuller of Hartford, Conn., Anne Rice, Anna Crockett, Adelle Snow, Mabel Haines and Anna Ingraham, of this city. The rooms were lavishly decorated with golden rod, ferns and potted lilies. Many friends from out of town were present.

BOSTON LETTER.

Our Weekly Notes From New England's Great Metropolis.

Boston, July 31, 1893.

The old schooner Polly of Owl's Head was here last week with a load of granite consigned to F. A. Russell & Co., contractors, who are building the sea wall near the Harvard Bridge, on the Charles River. Tuesday's Post contained a cut and a list of the vessel's history, and as a result the Polly received considerable attention from sight-seers during her stay.

Capt. William O'Brien of ship Alexander McClure, which was sunk by the Canadian liner Revia, has been in town on business connected with the loss of his vessel.

Capt. William Harrington is another Thomaston captain who has been here, having coming up to take charge of his vessel the last voyage of which has been made under the command of his son, Capt. Hollis Harrington.

Rev. Father Puelin was here for a few days last week.

Other Rockland people in town were Robert Messier, E. K. Glover and E. C. Robinson.

Sergeant John A. Bradley of Station 3 takes his annual vacation commencing today. He intends to visit Rockland before reporting for duty again. Mrs. Bradley is visiting in Mon-treat.

James McDougall has been here visiting his family. He makes his headquarters at Bar Harbor during the summer season, where he represents the firm of G. M. D. Legg & Co.

The steamer Penobscot left here Friday evening with the largest passenger list of the season thus far.

After a successful run of five weeks at the Tremont Theater "Amurita" was withdrawn Saturday evening, and tonight the first performance of "Parthenia" will be given. The season of light opera by the Pauline Hall Opera Company has drawn large audiences despite the countless attractions offered in the way of excursions and outings on land and on sea, and as Miss Hall and her able associates have become favorites here there is every indication that their second season will duplicate the success of last summer.

News That Shows Business Local Notes Regarding of Interest—The Week's of Personals.

Burgess lost a team last week.
A horse had been caught the past week.
The residence of G. F. Burgess is being erected.

Nothing has been heard from that stolen yacht yet.
A steam yacht was anchored in the harbor
Wednesday night.

There are six members in next year's High School graduating class.
The S. E. & H. L. Shepherd Co. received a carload of corn last week.

The electric motor at Achors Bros. polishing machines is working faithfully.
Walter Caldwell cut his foot quite badly, but is so as to be out again.

The painter are at work on E. Morrill's house, painting it in pleasing colors.
A new forefall for the Adie Morrill constitutes the bulk of work on that fall.

The pleasant ice cream rooms of Mrs. Jones are popular places of resort in hot weather.
Green peas are just in order. Strawberry season is over, and blueberries are in the market.

Charles Prince, the electric railroad's track man, is a faithful employee. He's always on deck.
Dr. Eljer has gotten to be quite a navigator.
He made a trip to Thomaston last week in his yacht.

Achors Bros. placed some of their fine granite monumental work in Amnary Cemetery, last week.
R. H. Carey is canvassing Rockport and Camden for Blaine's "Twenty years in Congress."

Two of our High School graduates are at work for M. H. Gunnell—E. A. Thurston and Carrie Fuller.
Last week's Jennie Harkness letter was a very interesting one. We shall have another instalment in an early day.

The following jurors have been drawn:
Grand, H. C. Annie; Traverse, Isaac Jameson; 2nd, and C. E. McInnis.
The vegetable gardens are looking well.
There have not been any striped hogs seen this year in Rockport, and a very few potato hogs.

A new horse carriage has been ordered for the town and is about due here. It is a four wheeler, hand or horse, and will have a capacity of 800 feet of base.
This edition of Tux Co. G. should be filed away by Rockporters for future reference. The statistics herein presented may be found useful at some future time.

We made a slight error in our statement last week that all of the Fourth Maine boys in town were members of Fred A. Norwood Post.
Capt. Arthur Libby belongs to No. Post.

The list of taxpayers published elsewhere shows that we have in town a great many wealthy, well-to-do property owners. And the beauty of it all is that with few exceptions they are all self-made.

Rev. H. B. Woods, Mrs. S. D. Carleton and others of our people attended the Christian Alliance meetings at Old Orchard, Sunday. Rev.
F. W. Ryder of Lawrence, Mass., again occupied the Baptist pulpit.

The thunder shower of Wednesday was very acceptable for our gardens, fields and pasturage.
The electric field visited the telegraph offices and no connection with the Western offices was had for several hours afterward.

The excursion to Bar Harbor was a success for those who made the trip. The day was beautiful, and the company agreeable, and everything contributed to a pleasant trip. The excursionists returned early in the evening.

Our roads are now in as good condition as can be expected with the appropriation made this year. We notice, however, that the road at the Oakland bridge is rather narrow and teams have to be careful in passing and that the road ought to be widened to prevent accidents that may occur through that defect.

Mrs. Elsie Jameson of Friendship, who collected $350 last year for the Baptist society of Friendship, who are building a new church, is in Rockport raising funds to complete the same. Her efforts must commend itself to all who believe in helping and supporting churches.
She is giving her time and commissions on two works, with which she is canvassing for this purpose. She has the "World's Columbian Exposition" which is a finely illustrated description of this wonderful fair, also "Photographs of the Holy Land," a beautiful collection of views.

There is a good opening for the right man at the wheelwright shop, near Fred Copeland's blacksmith shop. There is considerable heavy repair work connected with the lime business as well as lighter work about town.
It seems that it ought to be a good business.
An electric motor, with a hand saw, a pony planer, and perhaps a small bus planer might be fitted up at a small expense and would be a great convenience to those who now have to go out of town to get their wheelwright work done.

Wednesday evening, July 26, the residence of Avery Small, Commercial street, was illuminated and decorated beautifully, in honor of their daughter Adelia's marriage to Bertram Hunt of Rockland. The bride was attired in cream colored brocade satin, trimmed in point lace, with gloves, tan, hose and slippers to match, and a bouquet of rare roses, presented by the groom. The bride-maid, Miss Abbie Boudell, wore a pale blue silk, with a bouquet of pink roses. Ralph Blackington of Rockland was best man. Mr. and Mrs. Hunt were the recipients of many valuable and useful presents. Among the number we noticed especially a elegant silver sugar bowl, from the brides brother, a glass wine set from her sister, Mrs. Bennett, silver cup and saucer from her uncle, Edw. Shibles, silver sugar shall from Mr. and Mrs. Plisk. Also lovely presents from the following: Mr. and Mrs. O. F.
Shepherd, Mr. and Mrs. John Clough, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Shepherd, Mr. and Mrs. A. V.
Small, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Shepherd.
Refreshments were served. At present the bride will remain with her parents. Mr. Hunt is one of the popular drivers of the electric, and a fine fellow. The bride is a charming and deserving young lady. The U. G. congratulates them.

VINALHAVEN'S LOCAL EVENTS

A Batch of Readable Notes from the Home of Granite

Gossip Bits of News Regarding Residents and Visitors—Occurrences Trivial and Important but None the Less of Great Interest.

The only cash register in town is at the Vinalhaven Drug store.
The thunder shower Wednesday broke up several picnic parties.
Members of the Chorus Guild held a picnic at J. F. Green's, Wednesday.

The machinery for the new factory has arrived and will be put in place this week.
Within a few days the jug has had three locupots—one each for our board of police.
The 18th Conley arrived Tuesday, having landed a fare of 80,000 pounds in Gloucester.

Active rehearsals are going on for the cantata, "Building of the Temple," under direction of Prof. T. L. Roberts.
John Pendleton gave a law party at Rock cottage Tuesday evening.

We want a good day tomorrow for the yacht race. A stiff breeze, a wet sheet and plowing sea, and will be the best man win!
Mrs. T. G. Libby and family have been camping at Round Pond for two weeks past.
During the time they have entertained quite a number of visitors.

Steamer Redwick brought a very large excursion party from Bangor and other ports on the river, Tuesday last. The Frankfort Band accompanied the party.
Improvements—J. F. Lawry is painting his house.... Geo. Banks is beautifying his residence with a coat of paint.... Jas. Blizet is building a fish house.

J. P. Walls has purchased the building in which is located the Vinalhaven drug store.
R. W. Wiley will occupy the store for the apothecary business.
J. P. Armstrong intends to remodel the Cascade Hotel and will use the first floor for a drug store, and possibly will have in connection a line of rent's furnishing goods.

The race between the yacht Ebel and Klave will come off tomorrow if the weather conditions are favorable. The distance will be 15 miles over a triangular course, and the boats are both good ones, and much interest is manifested as to which will be the winner.

The other day one of our leading citizens who had been enjoying an outing, was tramping down the Thoroughfare, and when abreast of the camp at Round Pond, one of the ladies who was stopping there, sang out to the others: "Oh! here comes a peddler," and all therewith scampered under cover. This only shows that appearances are not always to be depended upon.

A pretty and romantic spot is that section of the town known as Coombs' Neck, in the Eastman District—A long point of land, with Seal Bay on the west and Isles-Haute Bay on the east. A splendid view is to be had of all the numerous craft that go through the Thoroughfare. Benjamin, William, Frank and Freeman Coombs, descendants of the original settler, Anthony Coombs, occupy this tract, Benjamin residing on the old homestead. They are all bustling farmers and raise a fair crop of vegetables, which are sold principally in town.
Ben and Freeman are noted cabbage raisers, both in quantity and quality. This year Freeman has nearly 7000 plants, which will probably yield 8000 heads, and Ben may surely be counted on to have a supply of several thousand heads.
